March Networks Acceptable Use Policy

1. Unacceptable Use

March Networks Corporation, on behalf of itself and its subsidiaries and affiliates, (“March Networks”) requires that all customers and other users of March Networks’ cloud and web-based service (the “Service”) conduct themselves with respect for others. In particular, observe the following rules in your use of the Service:

- Abusive Behavior: Do not harass, threaten, or defame any person or entity. Do not contact any person who has requested no further contact. Do not use ethnic or religious slurs against any person or group.
- Privacy: Do not violate the privacy rights of any person. Do not collect or disclose any personal address, social security number, or other personally identifiable information without each holder’s written permission. Do not cooperate in or facilitate identity theft.
- Intellectual Property: Do not infringe upon the copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets, or other intellectual property rights of any person or entity. Do not reproduce, publish, or disseminate software, audio recordings, video recordings, photographs, articles, or other works of authorship without the written permission of the copyright holder.
- Hacking, Viruses, & Network Attacks: Do not access any computer or communications system without authorization, including the computers used to provide the Service. Do not attempt to penetrate or disable any security system. Do not intentionally distribute a computer virus, launch a denial of service attack, or in any other way attempt to interfere with the functioning of any computer, communications system, or website. Do not attempt to access or otherwise interfere with the accounts of other users of the Service.
- Spam: Do not send bulk unsolicited e-mails (“Spam”) or sell or market any product or service advertised by or connected with Spam. Do not facilitate or cooperate in the dissemination of Spam in any way. Do not violate the CAN-Spam Act of 2003; Canada's Anti-Spam Law (or “CASL”) of 2014 or other similar laws in applicable jurisdiction(s).
- Fraud: Do not issue fraudulent offers to sell or buy products, services, or investments. Do not mislead anyone about the details or nature of a commercial transaction. Do not commit fraud in any other way.
- Violations of Law: Do not violate any law.

2. Consequences of Violation

Violation of March Networks’ Acceptable Use Policy (“Acceptable Use Policy”) may lead to suspension or termination of the user’s account or legal action. In addition, the user may be required to pay for the costs of investigation and remedial action related to Acceptable Use Policy violations. March Networks reserves the right to take any other remedial action it sees fit.

3. Reporting Unacceptable Use

March Networks requests that anyone with information about a violation of this Acceptable Use Policy report it via e-mail to the following address: AUPinquiry@marchnetworks.com. Please provide the date and time (with time zone) of the violation and any identifying information regarding the violator, including e-mail or IP (Internet Protocol) address if available, as well as details of the violation.

In the event you have questions about this Acceptable Use Policy, you may contact a March Networks representative by sending an e-mail to AUPinquiry@marchnetworks.com.

4. Amendment of March Networks’ Practices and this AUP

This Acceptable Use Policy is in in effect as of October 1, 2017. March Networks will from time to time review and revise its Acceptable Use Policy practices and this Acceptable Use Policy. In the event of any amendment, an appropriate notice will be posted on March Networks’ web site.

Other means may also be used to provide notice of any change in policy and practices. Policy changes will apply to the information collected from the date of posting of the revised Policy Statement to March Networks’ web site as well as to existing information held by March Networks.
